

AUBURN UNITING CHURCH
81 Oxley Road, Hawthorn

COFFEE MORNING
PROGRAM 10:15 am
Thursday 5th April 2017

Meetings are held in the Eileen Pawsey Room
commencing with morning tea

“Keep the Home Fires Burning
some reflections on life in Australia during WWII”
Speaker: Rev Dr James Donaldson

Rev Dr James Donaldson has been a welcome guest speaker at three previous meetings, talking about sheep, sheep shearing, Scottish migration and British colonialism in Australia.

James has had a variety of life experiences. Arriving in Australia aged 16, he worked on sheep and wheat stations in NSW before studying to be a Presbyterian Minister. He has a distinguished career within the Presbyterian Church and later the Uniting Church - as a Parish Minister, School Chaplain and Army Chaplain.

Now retired, James is an important ‘locum’ Minister for Auburn Church.

Some parking is available at the end of Edlington Street
You are warmly invited to stay for a light lunch
- gold coin donation appreciated

For more information contact Daphne: 9898 6133;
or Pat: concise222@gmail.com Website: www.auburnuc.org.au

AUBURN UNITING CHURCH
81 Oxley Road, Hawthorn

COFFEE MORNING
PROGRAM 10:15 am
Thursday 5th April 2017

Meetings are held in the Eileen Pawsey Room
commencing with morning tea

“Keep the Home Fires Burning
some reflections on life in Australia during WWII”
Speaker: Rev Dr James Donaldson

Rev Dr James Donaldson has been a welcome guest speaker at three previous meetings, talking about sheep, sheep shearing, Scottish migration and British colonialism in Australia.

James has had a variety of life experiences. Arriving in Australia aged 15, he worked on sheep and wheat stations in NSW before studying to be a Presbyterian Minister. He has a distinguished career within the Presbyterian Church and later the Uniting Church - as a Parish Minister, School Chaplain and Army Chaplain.

Now retired, James is an important ‘locum’ Minister for Auburn Church.

Some parking is available at the end of Edlington Street
You are warmly invited to stay for a light lunch
- gold coin donation appreciated

For more information contact Daphne: 9898 6133;
or Pat: concise222@gmail.com Website: www.auburnuc.org.au