Auburn Uniting Church Hawthorn

We are worshipping on the land of the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nations. We acknowledge them as traditional owners and custodians. For millennia they have cared for the land through their law, customs and spirituality. We pay our respect to their elders past and present, and commit ourselves to working for reconciliation and justice.

Trinity Sunday

ORGAN PRELUDE:

INTROIT:

Most ancient of all mysteries, before your throne we lie.

Have mercy now most merciful, most holy Trinity.

When heaven and earth were yet unformed,

and time was yet unknown,

You in your glorious majesty did live and love alone.

Words: FW Faber (1814 - 1863); Music: an Office Hymn tune from Elmore Abbey, adapted Anthony Greening.

CALL TO WORSHIP:

Jesus said, "I will not leave you to face life alone; The Spirit will come."

Lord God, this is such great news.

Truly, you are the living God.

Truly, you are not dead but risen in power.

Truly, you journey with us, along life's road.

Truly, the Spirit has come among us to uplift our lives.

Come Spirit of Jesus, come as you promised to us, gathered together on Trinity Sunday in your name.

Come Spirit of Jesus, to those of us who feel happy and at peace with the world;
Come Spirit of Jesus, to those of us who feel troubled, full of worries, and surrounded by problems.

Come Spirit of Jesus, to those of us who feel eager for life and brimming with anticipation for the future.

Come Spirit of Jesus, to those of us who feel tired and done, with only memories to keep us going.

Come Spirit of Jesus, to those of us who feel close to you and are sure of your love. Come Spirit of Jesus, to those of us who feel very unsure with very little faith and trust in you.

Bless us in our worship this morning; send your Spirit as you have promised to strengthen the weak; to uphold the sick, to refresh the weary, to bring new hope to those who are in despair, and strong consolation to those who mourn.

O Holy Spirit, the comforter and uplifter of our lives, we give you thanks.

Help us to worship, to sing and to pray; to think and to give of ourselves, as we come before you this morning, gathered as your people in this place.
